

Bible Survey II

1 Samuel to Job

Course Description

Bible Survey II is a 13-week course providing an overview of the second sixth of the Bible. It will cover a historical section spanning from the time of Samuel, the last judge of Israel, to Zedekiah, the last king of Judah. Each class will cover approximately 20 chapters of the Bible. Worksheets to help the student consider significant themes of Scripture will be provided. Class time will be divided between lecture and discussion.

Course Objectives: Bible Survey II will provide an overview of 1 Samuel through Job in which students will learn the primary

- Characters and events
- Correlations to New Testament teaching
- Personal and ministry applications

Participation

This course is open to anyone who wishes to participate, ages 14 and older. It is taught, however, on an adult level. For students not taking the class for credit, it is recommended, but not required, that they read the assigned passage each week before class and complete the homework questions.

University of ACTS Requirement for Course Credit

Grace Bible Chapel and Hillview Bible Chapel participate together in an adult training curriculum called the University of A.C.T.S. The acronym stands for Adult in-Church Training for Service. This multi-phase program is designed to ground believers in the Christian faith, to help them to grow in a knowledge of God and Christ-like maturity, and to prepare them for Christian service. This course is one of the required classes for the first phase of training. Students wishing to receive UOA credit for this class must meet the following requirements.

- Students should attend all 13 classes, unless unable to do so. To receive credit for the course, they must not miss more than three classes.
- Students should arrive on time, having read the assigned passage and completed the homework questions. They should turn in homework assignments to the discussion group leader at the end of class. To receive credit for the course, all homework must be completed and submitted no later than two weeks after the assignment was due.
- Students must complete the final examination, receiving a score of 75% or higher.
